

Constitution & Citizenship Day

Constitution & Citizenship Day is celebrated annually on September 17th by Arizona Christian University. This day commemorates the September 17, 1787 signing of the U.S. Constitution.

Background:

President George W. Bush signed a bill on December 8, 2004 (public law 108-447) which designates every September 17 as Constitution Day for all schools eligible for Title IV funding. This provision was introduced by Senator Robert Byrd in order to increase general knowledge about the constitution.
